SITUATION SUMMARY

Significant Weather

Fire Weather

- A Red Flag Warning is in effect until 2100 hours this evening for portions of Siskiyou and Del Norte Counties.
- A Fire Weather Watch is in effect from late Saturday night through Monday afternoon for portions of Butte, Colusa, Glenn, Lake, Plumas, Shasta, Sutter, Tehama and Yuba Counties.

Heat:

- An Excessive Heat Watch will be in effect from Sunday morning 06/08/14 through Monday evening 06/09/14 for portions of Inyo and San Bernardino Counties below 4000 feet.
- NWS is predicting some near record temperatures in portions of NWS Sacramento and other areas of CA. This Sunday has the potential of seeing valley readings near or at records in many central and Northern Valley locations, as well as across Southeast CA in the San Diego area. San Diego looks to hold onto the heat into Monday as well.
- Temperatures are expected to reach the low 100s over the weekend and as high as 105 on Sunday before dropping back down 3 to 5 degrees on Monday. Overnight temperatures will be in the low 60s to the low 70s which will bring some relief from the hot daytime temperatures.
- With the approach of summer, though the state remains in the Phase I Alert condition of Seasonal Readiness, as outlined in the State Contingency Plan for Excessive Heat Emergency, State Agencies/Departments are advised to review existing plans, procedures and resources, to facilitate preparedness for and response to possible excessive heat events, and closely monitor the situation and inform Cal OES of any heat related issues or concerns.
- The California Utilities Emergency Association (CUEA) reports that all power providers and Cal ISO have sufficient capacity to meet expected demand, and no advisories or restrictions are anticipated at this time.
- The California State Warning Center continues to monitor the weather statewide for heat or fire weather of concern and state power grid issues, and Cal OES Regions will remain in contact with Operational Areas (Counties) to monitor heat events which may impact local communities, facilities or agencies.

WEATHER

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION:

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA AND CENTRAL COASTAL AREAS:

Eureka Weather:

A ridge over the area will bring interior locations dry conditions and above normal temperatures for the next few days. The coast can expect areas of clouds in the early mornings otherwise clear.

San Francisco Weather:

Warmer temperatures are forecast this weekend and into Monday as high pressure builds along the west coast. High temperatures inland will be in the 80's and 90's while the coast remains in the 60's and 70's. Cooler weather returns to all areas by the middle of next week.

CENTRAL CALIFORNIA AND SOUTHERN SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY

Sacramento Weather:

Hot temperatures will continue through Monday with a modest cooling trend through the course of next week. Dry conditions along with periods of locally breezy north winds will bring elevated fire danger. A slight chance of thunderstorms will be possible along the Sierra during the afternoons and evenings through Monday.

Hanford Weather:

A warming trend is expected over the region through the weekend as high pressure builds along the west coast. Slight cooling is expected by the middle of next week.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA:

Los Angeles Weather:

High pressure will cause some warming in the mountains and deserts today, but a deep marine layer will likely prevent any warming in coastal and valley areas. As the high strengthens, the marine layer will shrink in depth, allowing for warming in most areas on Sunday. A weak upper low may bring slight cooling to areas west of the mountains Monday, then more significant and widespread cooling is likely Tuesday and Wednesday as the low moves across the region. Near to slightly below normal temperatures are expected for the end of the week.

Extreme Southwestern California Including Orange, San Diego, Western Riverside and Southwestern San Bernardino Counties:

Seasonal onshore flow will continue through next week with areas of night and morning coastal low clouds and fog and with gusty west winds in the mountains and deserts each late afternoon through late evening. High pressure to the south will bring inland warming with warmest days Sunday and Monday. This will be followed by slow cooling for Tuesday into next weekend as a trough of low pressure develops near the west coast.

Southeast California Weather:

Strong high pressure centered over northern Mexico will maintain above normal temperatures and completely dry conditions through the end of next week. Weak weather disturbances passing through the region will lead to some fluctuations in temperatures with slight cooling this weekend, but with a resumption of hot weather early next week.

CAL OES ACTIVATIONS

Cal EOC Incident – 2014 Drought

- The SOC is activated at Level 2 in support of the Drought State of Emergency from 0800-1700 hours daily.
- The Inland REOC is activated at Level 2 from 0800-1700 Monday through Friday or as needed.
- The Southern REOC is activated at Level 1.
- The Santa Barbara County OA EOC is activated at Level 2 to be handled by the duty officer for the purpose of monitoring activities and gaining situational awareness. The operational period is 0800-1700 hours.

Situational Summary

On January 17, 2014 Governor Edmund G. Brown proclaimed a State of Emergency and directed state officials to take all necessary actions to prepare for drought conditions. The State Operation Center (SOC) is activated to implement objectives in support of the Governor's priorities. The lack of winter rain and snowfall has resulted in extremely dry conditions in many parts of the State. Reservoir levels are down significantly from where they should be on average for this time of year. If conditions continue without substantial rainfall, severe impacts to municipal water supplies, agriculture (plants and livestock) and firefighting capabilities are likely in store for the State over the next few months. Negative economic impacts will also result.

On April 25, 2014 Governor Brown released an Executive Order on Friday enabling several urgent actions to be taken as the drought persists into the state's traditional dry season.

** As this rainy season comes to an end, it is highly unlikely that precipitation totals will increase significantly over the coming months. This winter's below average rain and snowfall worsens conditions in this third straight dry year.****

- The Taskforce continues to meet regularly to take actions that conserve water and coordinate state response to the drought.
- The final manual snowpack survey of the season was conducted on Thursday (May 1) and showed California snowpack at 18% of normal. A more recent update using automated devices shows snowpack at 3% of normal as of May 30.
- DWR has announced that water essential for health and safety will be delivered through the state water project. The current State Water Project Allocation is 5%.
- Cal OES continues to gather drought-related costs from state agencies and local governments.
